HISTORICAL NOTICES.

THE Grant for the settlement of this Town, from the General Court of Massachusetts Colony, at its Session held in Boston, October 12th, 1670, required the maintenance of a Gospel Ministry here; and early measures were taken for that purpose.

Owing to the disturbance occasioned by the Indian war of 1675, known by the name of Philip's war, the proprietors were unable to carry this provision into effect until 1680, when Mr. JOHN YOUNGLOVE came among them in the ministry. He continued here till his decease, which occurred June 3d, 1690. He was succeeded by Mr. GEORGE PHILIPS, who preached here till the Spring of 1692. Mr. NATHANIEL CLAP came in 1693, and continued until 1695, and was succeeded by Mr. BENJAMIN RUGGLES, who came in the summer of that year. None of Mr. Ruggles' predecessors were ordained here.

There is no record of that day known to exist, stating definitely the time when this Church was organized, nor when Mr. Ruggles was ordained. Some action was taken toward the accomplishment of the former object in 1694; but it was not carried fully into effect. The doings of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Hampshire County, Massachusetts, and the records of this Town, show that a Council of Ministers was called April 26th, 1698, (May 7th, N. S.) to consider upon and advise with respect to the settlement of Mr. Ruggles in the ministry here, and other circumstances, notices, and facts, point to that, as the period when the first Church in Suffield was organized, and Rev. Benjamin Ruggles ordained its Pastor. Mr. Ruggles was a native of Roxbury, Mass., and a graduate of Harvard College in 1693. He continued the faithful and beloved Pastor of the Church until his decease, September 5th, 1708. Who, and how many constituted the membership of the Church during his pastorate, is not certainly known.

The second Pastor, was Rev. EBENEZER DEVOTION, a native of Dorchester, Mass. He graduated at Harvard College in 1707; was ordained June 28th, 1710; and continued Pastor of the Church until his decease, April 11th, 1741—nearly 31 years. During his ministry, three hundred and thirty-four were admitted to the communion of the Church, three hundred and seven by profession, and twenty-seven by letter from other Churches. Of Mr. Devotion it is inscribed, that “He was a Man of a sound judgment, great Stability of Mind, and singular Modesty and Humility, a true Friend and faithful Minister, steady in his Attendance upon the Altar, close and pungent in his Preaching, and very exemplary in his Life, a Pattern of Industry and Resignation, and of all Christian Graces.”

During the time the pastoral office remained vacant after the decease of Mr. Devotion, a period of nine months, there were admitted to the communion of the Church, one hundred and seventy-six; ninety-seven by Rev. JONATHAN EDWARDS, pastor of the Church in Northampton, and seventy-nine by Rev. PETER RAYNOLDS, pastor of the Church in Enfield.

In the month of February following the ordination of Mr. Devotion's successor, thirty-one persons were received into the communion of the Church; making an aggregate of two hundred and seven persons received within one year subsequent to his decease. This was the ingathering, resulting from what has been called "the great awakening of 1741."

The third Pastor, Rev. EBENEZER GAY, D. D., a native of Dedham, Mass., and graduate of Harvard College in 1737, was ordained January 13th, 1742. November 10th, 1743, the members of this Church residing in the West Society were organized into a Church, and constituted the Second Congregational Church in the town.

About the same time, the New Lights, or Separates, began to manifest themselves in this Church; and in 1747, a number of its members withdrew from the communion and fellowship of their brethren, and formed a Society or Church, who were known by the name of Separates. They continued several years, built themselves a house for public worship in 1762, and settled a minister, but soon after became divided and broken up—a portion of them returned and were received again into this Church; another portion were organized into and constituted the first Baptist Church in Suffield.

Dr. GAY continued the acting Pastor of the First Congregational Church until the settlement of his son, Rev. EBENEZER GAY, Jr., as his colleague, and senior Pastor until his decease, March 7th, 1796. During his pastorate one hundred and sixty-seven persons were admitted to the communion of the Church; of which one hundred and thirty-three were by profession, and thirty-four by letters from other churches.

The fourth Pastor, Rev. EBENEZER GAY, Jr., was ordained March 6th, 1793. He was the acting Pastor, until the installation of Rev. JOEL MANN, December 13th, 1826, and senior Pastor until his decease. Mr. Gay was the eldest son of Rev. Ebenezer Gay, D. D. He was born at Suffield, March 10th, 1766; graduated at Yale College in 1787, and deceased January 1st, 1837, in the 44th year of his ministry and 71st year of his age. One hundred and sixty persons were admitted into the membership of the Church during Mr. GAY's acting pastorate; one hundred and thirty-eight of which were by profession, and twenty two by letter.

Rev. JOEL MANN was installed the fifth Pastor of this Church, December 13th, 1826. Mr. Mann was born in Orford, N. H., February 7th, 1789; he graduated at Dartmouth College in 1810, and was ordained in Bristol, R. I., November 15th, 1815. He was the acting Pastor of this Church from his installation till December 1st, 1829, about three years, when at his request he received his dismission. Twenty-five persons were admitted members of the Church during his pastorate; twenty-two of which were by profession, and three by letter. After Mr. Mann's dismission and during the time that the pastoral office was vacant of an acting Pastor, two persons were admitted members of this Church, one by profession, and one by letter.

The sixth Pastor of this Church was Rev. HENRY ROBINSON. He was a native of Guilford in this State, born December 20th, 1788; graduated at Yale College in 1811 and Andover Theological Seminary in 1816; was ordained in Litchfield, South Farms, Ct., April 30th, 1823, and installed Pastor of this Church June 1st, 1831. He

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the smell of the sea. It was a salty, briny smell that I had never before. I had been told that the sea was beautiful, but I had never smelled it. I took a deep breath and the smell filled my lungs. I was in the south of France, in the town of Antibes. The sea was a deep blue color and the sky was a clear, bright blue. I had heard that the weather was perfect, and it was. I was in luck. I had come to the right place at the right time. continued in the office until April 18th, 1837, when at his request he was dismissed. Twenty-five persons were admitted members of the Church in his pastorate; eleven by profession and fourteen by letter. After Mr. Robinson's dismissal, and during the time that the pastoral office was vacant, four persons were admitted to the Church; one by profession, and three by letter.

The seventh Pastor, Rev. ASAHEL C. WASHBURN, was installed Pastor of this Church, January 3d, 1838. He was born in Leicester, Mass., December 20th, 1800; graduated at Middlebury College, Vt., in 1825; was ordained as a missionary in Vermont, November, 1827. He continued in the pastoral relation here until July 23d, 1851, when at his request he was dismissed. During Mr. Washburn's pastorate, two hundred and eleven persons were received into the Church, of which one hundred and sixty-five were by profession and forty-six by letter. After Mr. Washburn's dismissal and previous to the installation of the present Pastor, twenty-three persons were received into the Church, sixteen by profession and seven by letter.

Rev. J. R. MILLER was installed Pastor of this Church, December 28th, 1853. He was born in Williamsburgh, Mass., July 18th, 1818; graduated at Union College, July, 1844; was ordained in Norwich, Mass., May, 1848. Since Mr. Miller's installation to the present (August, 1858), one hundred and five persons have been received into the Church, of which seventy-seven were by profession and twenty-eight by letter.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

YOU believe, that there is one only, the living and true God, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, the Maker, Preserver, and Governor of all things; that he is Omnipresent, Omniscient and Omnipotent, and infinite in holiness, justice and benevolence.

You believe, that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are given by the inspiration of God, and are the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

You believe, that man was at first created with that holiness which is the image of God; but that man sinned and broke covenant with God by eating the forbidden fruit; and that by his disobedience his posterity became sinners.

You believe, that all mankind, unless renewed by the Holy Spirit, are destitute of holiness, and under the curse of the Divine law.

You believe, that God of his mercy, sent his Son into the world, who in our nature has made an atonement for sin by the sacrifice of himself, and brought in everlasting righteousness.

You believe, that all whom the Father hath given to Christ shall come unto him; and that these shall be justified freely of his grace, and be kept by his power through faith unto salvation.

You believe, that in order to be saved, the soul must be renewed by the special agency of the Holy Spirit.

You believe, that the Lord's Supper and Baptism are Sacraments of the New Testament; that Baptism is the seal of the righteousness of faith, and symbolical of the work wrought upon the heart by the Holy Ghost in regeneration; and that unbaptised adults, on making profession of their faith, and the infant children of those in fellowship with the Church, are the proper persons to receive this Sacrament.

You believe, that at the last day the Lord Jesus Christ shall descend from Heaven, raise the dead, judge the world in righteousness, and reward his saints with eternal life, and punish the ungodly with everlasting destruction.

COVENANT.

YOU now, present before the Lord, do sincerely and solemnly avouch the Eternal God to be your chief good and last end.

You avouch the Lord Jesus Christ to be your only Mediator, Lord, and Head, receiving and relying upon him alone as your High Priest, Prophet, and King forever.

You avouch the Holy Ghost to be your Leader, Guide, Comforter, and Sanctifier.

Sensible that it is a solemn thing thus to transact with God, you do now enter into an everlasting covenant with this one God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; and you resolve, by Divine Grace, to make His word your rule of life, your heart a temple for His holy residence.

You thus solemnly covenant with God. [Here the ordinance of baptism is to be administered to those, thus covenanting, who have not previously received it.]

(You, who have been previously baptized, avouch your acceptance of that baptism, as the seal of your covenant, and as symbolical of the gracious renewing of the Holy Ghost.)

You do now covenant with this Church, and engage to attend with us upon all the ordinances of the Gospel, and to be subject to the government of Christ in this Church, and to seek its peace and welfare, as long as God shall continue you among us.

This you promise.

I do, then, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, declare you to be in full communion with this Church; [here the Church rise] and in behalf of this Church of Christ, I promise, that by the aid of God's Spirit we will walk together with you in brotherly love and watchfulness, to the mutual edification of each other, in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel.

We do now in Christian charity commend you to the grace of God, which is able to build you up in faith and holiness unto eternal salvation. Amen.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

First. The Officers of this Church are:—1st, a Pastor; 2d, Deacons (not less than three nor more than seven); 3d, Committee of the Church; 4th, Superintendents of the Sabbath School; 5th, Clerk; 6th, Treasurer.

Second. The Pastor shall appoint meetings of the Church whenever he may judge it expedient, also on the written application of five members.

Third. The Pastor shall act as Moderator and, whenever the members are equally divided, have a casting vote.

Fourth. The Clerk shall keep a fair record of the votes and proceedings of the Church, which shall be free for the inspection of the members.

Fifth. Any person desirous of becoming a member of this Church, should make application to the Pastor, or either of the Deacons.

Sixth. The Committee of the Church shall consist of six members, whose duty it shall be, with the Pastor, to examine candidates for admission to the Church. Two of said Committee shall be chosen annually, by ballot, to hold office three years, and those going out shall be ineligible for one year.

Seventh. Candidates for admission to the Church, must be examined at such time and place as the Pastor shall appoint, before any members of the Church that are disposed to be present, and they shall ordinarily remain propounded at least one week previous to admission.

Eighth. Believers not baptised in infancy, on making a public profession of religion are required to receive the ordinance of baptism.

Ninth. No persons from other Churches, can be admitted to membership, unless they shall furnish satisfactory testimonials of Christian character by a recommendation from the Church to which they belong.

Tenth. It is expected of the members of other Churches, who contemplate a residence in this place in some degree permanent and who purpose to commune with us, to become connected with this Church in the course of one year.

Eleventh. It shall be the duty of the members of this Church, who remove and obtain a permanent residence in another place, to request a letter from this Church, and to unite with one in their own vicinity.

Twelfth. Letters of commendation to other Churches shall be good for only one year; and those commended are not to be dismissed on our records till notice is received of their reception into said Churches.

Thirteenth. This Church regard the Lord's day as holy time, and to be observed according to the fourth commandment.

Fourteenth. Each member of the Church, so far as Providence may permit, shall be visited every year during the two weeks next preceeding the 2d and 5th regular communion seasons of the Church, for the purpose of exhortation, admonition and inquiry into the spiritual state of its members.

Fifteenth. To carry the above rule into effect, the Pastor (or officers of the Church) shall appoint during the interval preceding the communion seasons aforesaid, twelve or more persons, and appoint them districts where they are to go forth, two and two, and visit each member in their respective districts, in the spirit of the teachings of our Lord. Said persons to make a report of their labors at the meeting preparatory for the seasons of communion aforesaid.

Sixteenth. This Church holds it to be a solemn and important duty to attend watchfully to the discipline which Christ has instituted.

Seventeenth. The rules for the discipline of this Church in private offences, are those prescribed by our Lord in the XVIII Chapter of Matthew, 15, 16 and 17 verses.

Eighteenth. Every member shall be considered as under the watch, care and discipline of this Church, and none can be allowed to withdraw and unite with another Church, until regularly dismissed from connection with this by vote.

Nineteenth. All charges and complaints against any member, shall be presented in writing to the Pastor, and the names of the witnesses, except when common fame may be considered as the accuser,
